

HOROSCOPES - 25 PAGES

January 2010

Prediction

Believe in your future

Love, money &
sparkling energy

Instant colour therapy cures for you

How to...

► Understand your karma with astrology

► Light up your life
with candle magic

► Use Tarot to banish heartache

"My tricky job
dilemma solved"

Our psychics' latest challenge

2012 and other amazing predictions!

Doreen virtue

World famous angel guru!

Madonna
Is her face her fortune?

Ask an expert

Krystle, 26, Aries

Am I on the right career path?

"He saw my future career would involve words, maybe publishing"

Barrie the medium was really good. We focused on my career and he said I'm looking to make a jump but I'm doubting myself - but I shouldn't. He heard from my grandmother on my mother's side that making this decision shouldn't hold me back, that I'm more than capable of making it a success. Barrie said he saw my future career would involve words, maybe publishing.

Francesca did my Tarot and put a helpful time frame on things. She could see an opportunity, but my heart still hasn't found what makes me passionate enough about my work. She said I'd still have a good opportunity, but it definitely wouldn't be what I would be doing in the long-term future. She said I needed to be more proactive in finding what my true path is. That really fits with me, it's true I haven't yet found what I'm really passionate about.

Aura reader Joy was my favourite. She said exactly what she thought and saw that I'd lost my confidence, which is true. My throat chakra was highlighted and she asked about theatre work that I used to be involved with, saying I should get back to that in some way. Red is the colour that will help me and singing lessons will be a step in the right direction.

Jay, 41, Aquarius

What can I do about my job dilemma?

"An incredibly accurate reading of my personality"

I asked Francesca the Tarot reader whether the career opportunity that's coming up is the right thing to do or not. What I wanted to know specifically was whether this would give me more stress. She said it would be less stressful than what I'm doing now. She saw that my fears are unfounded.

You'd need a really long session with Joy the aura reader to get a specific answer to any question as it's not that sort of practice, but she gave me an incredibly accurate reading of my personality... what I project as a person isn't necessarily who I am. She was very perceptive of things that most people would not pick up on me. Whether I would allow anyone else to go that far and tell me those things about me, I'm not so sure!

Obviously it's very difficult for Barrie to do a mediumship reading on me because I know him! But my father came through and gave me a different perspective on how things would be if I took up the opportunity. It was very moving indeed. Barrie channelled information he could never have known about me, through my father.

All the readings gave me something but my favourite was Joy. I can't wait to hear more.

What the experts thought...

Francesca says...

Should Krystle pursue the opportunity on offer? The cards told me straight away that she would certainly be presented with an interesting choice to make. But this might not be right for her in the long term as it might not suit her inner emotional needs.

Barrie says...

I got a grandmother and a grandfather figure coming through for Krystle. She's got real support from the spirit world and they're watching out for her. She's surrounded by exciting possibilities - not just at the moment but for the future too.

Joy says...

I could see in her throat and heart chakras that she has talent for connecting with people: performance art, singing, public speaking. I see this tremendous talent, but she needs to believe in herself first!

Francesca says...

We looked at Jay's subconscious feelings - his real beliefs and desires surrounding his possible change of job. From there I saw that his real challenge is to actually make a move. He is a bit fearful of moving forward, but he really, really should!

Barrie says...

It was unusual for me to read for someone I know so well. But when I went into medium mode I just gave him what was there. I didn't know what to expect so I was pleased when his dad came through.

Joy says...

Career-wise Jay's in a safe zone and moving a bit too slowly. He's stubborn, but I really want to push to the next level! With auras you see past the outer personality to the inner you, the parts you don't always want to show others.

Ask an expert

Lizzy, 32, Aquarius

What's ahead for love, work and my family?

"Joy gave amazing and practical advice on where to go from here"

Barrie the medium communicated most of this information through both of my granddads. Barrie could see that here was a strong pull for me to go back to Argentina to see both of my grandmothers and he also reassured me about my daughter.

Like Barrie said too, Francesca the Tarot lady saw me meeting someone new near the end of the year, so that's pretty exciting. But she said that I need to heal first, which is true. She could see I've been through a stressful time over the past year or so and I found it was very encouraging that she could see the real me.

The aura reading was fantastic, my favourite. All she said was so very true, especially on how I'm going through life at the moment. She told me loads of things I need to start doing. I need to make lists of positive and negative things about my job, and she gave me great advice about my daughter. She really made me think about how to make positive changes at home.

Joy had amazing and practical advice and I really feel like I know what I want to do now.

Francesca says...

It was obvious to me straight away that she's had a difficult past. There's healing to be done, but once she lets herself enjoy things again the positive energy will pour in. The guy that she needs came up as a very positive force and she needs to do the energy work to bring him in sooner rather than later.

Barrie says...

Lizzy holds back a bit because of issues with past relationships so it was good to be able to move her forward into a brighter future. I could see new relationships and a more positive path unfolding for her.

Joy says...

I can see that she does a brilliant job but that it's not really suited to her energy. She needs to be making a difference in people's lives... and to reprioritise and set some boundaries. She certainly needs lots of mummy time!

Even Prediction's supernatural powers couldn't keep swine flu from claiming one of our readers on the morning of this photo shoot. So we were going to be a person short. Fortunately for us, Barrie's friend Jay, who'd come along out of curiosity, volunteered to take our reader's place. Although, this did pose an interesting challenge when it was Barrie's turn to tune into the spirit world of someone that he knows very well...

If you would like to take part as a reader or as an expert in this feature, please email us at: prediction@ipcmedia.com